Land and Place: He Whenua, He Wāhi: Spiritualities from Aotearoa New Zealand

Edited by Helen Bergin and Susan Smith

Foreword
Neil Darragh 1

Introduction
Helen Bergin 5

Globalisation, Colonisation and the Land
Paul Dalziel and Jane Higgins 9

A Three-Way Relationship: God, Land, People.
A Maori Woman Reflects
Tui Cadogan 27

A Perspective on Early Maori Relationships with Land
Dorothy Urlich Cloher 45

Land, Identity and Change
Alice Sinnott 59

Jesus and His Relationship to His Land
John Dunn 77

Landscape as Spiritual Classic: A Reading from Paekakariki
Elizabeth Julian 97

Rural Spirituality: A South Islander Reflects
Robyn McPhail 115

The Healing of Our Land
Susan Smith 133

"Surely the Lord is in this Place":
God and Places in Aotearoa New Zealand
Maurice Andrews 149

The Waters of Aotearoa New Zealand: Experience of the Holy Spirit?
Helen Bergin 165

Common or Garden Spirituality, Spirituality of Place seen through the Life and Death of a Garden
Peter Murnane 185

Green Fingers
Ann Gilroy 201

The Dark Night of Creation
Mary Horn 217

Responses
Judy Reinken
Keith Carley 233

Suggestions for Further Reading
243